Exercise 3

Q. Underline the adjectives of quality in the following passage.

Long time ago there was a god named Zeus. He had a son named Hercules. Hercules was a brave and strong man. He was also very intelligent. Everyone loved him very much. Even as a baby, Hercules was very strong.

Once, Hercules was given a very difficult task. In a nearby village, a giant lion was scaring the people. The giant lion had very sharp teeth. Many hunters tried to catch it, but failed. Hercules was asked to go to that village and kill the giant lion.

Hercules left for the village. On his way, he met a man from the village.

'I will pray that you kill the giant lion and return safely,' the man said to Hercules.

'Thank you,' said Hercules. 'Wait for me here for thirty days, then you can go on your way.'

The man agreed and hoped that Hercules would win against the giant lion.

A few days passed. Then one day, the man saw Hercules walking towards him. He was wearing the lion's fur as a coat!

Once again, Hercules proved he was a strong and brave man.
