Q5. Why has cricket a large viewership in India, not in China or Russia?

Ans. Cricket has a large viewership in India, not in China or Russia because cricket from its origins was organised as a contest between the countries which were under the British rule or white settler countries. India was also under the British rule. The technology of satellite T.V. and world wide reach of multinational T.V. companies have also created a global market for cricket in India and thus the game's centre of gravity had shifted to South Asia.

Q6. What do you understand by the game's (cricket) equipment?

Ans. The game's (cricket) 'equipment' means the materials used for playing cricket like bat, ball, stumps, bails etc.

Q7 How is Test cricket a unique game in many ways?

Ans. Test cricket is a unique game in many ways: -

1. A Test match can go on for five days and still end in a draw.
2. The length of the pitch is specified that is 22 yards but the size or shape of the ground is not.
