

P. 3. Rain on the Roof

Q. What does the poet like to do when it rains?

Ans:- Through this poem the poet wants to expose his utmost desire. The poet says that when rain comes he wishes to lie on a cushioned bed in his cottage.

Q. What is the single major memory that comes to the poet? Who are the "darling dreamers" he refers to?

Ans:- Through this poem the poet wants to reveal his idea that past does not die but it is ~~dead~~ ~~dead~~ alive and inspires the present. Consequently the poet thinks of his revered mother looking fondly on his face while he lays in bed. Here in this poem the poet has used the word darling dreamers. It refers to his brothers and sisters when they were child.

Q. Is the poet now a child? Is this no ther still alive?

Ans:- the poet accepts that he is no longer a infant. He is grown up. His mother has joined in heaven. The poet & recollects the face of his mother. It is natural that people recollect their forebathers.

Q. When you were a young child, did your mother tuck you in, as the poets did?

Ans:- No doubt heaven lies under the feet of mother. Our mother always took care of us. She used to tuck us in. We are unable to forget the role of mother in our & transitory life.

Q. Do you like rains? What do you do when it rains steadily or heavily as in the poem?

Ans:- we like rainy season. During rainy season we wear raincoat and ~~boots~~ like to wander hither and thither to take the latest pleasure. At night when it rains then we like to listen the patter of rain.
