

P. S. A Legend of the Northland.

Q. Write the short story of 'A Legend of the Northland' in about ten sentences.

Ans:— one day St. Peter, while preaching round the world reached the door of an old lady who was preparing cake. St. Peter was hungry. He asked the lady to give him a piece of her cake. The old lady started to make a small cake but it seemed to her too big to be given. She tried many times to prepare a thin cake but her inner conscience accepted that it was big.

Lastly she made a paper thin cake. Still her heart did not like to part with it. To see the greedy and selfish behaviour St. Peter became furious. He began to laugh like a狂人. He angrily told the lady that she was not fit to live in a human form and enjoy food and warmth. Consequently he cursed the woman ~~and~~ to turn into a woodpecker who used to live in hard dry wood to get its scanty food.

—