P. 5. A Legend of the Northland.

Q. Is this true story? Which part of this poem do you feel is the most important?

Ans:— As our conscience says and the poet himself thinks that it might not be a true story we notice that the most important part of the story is that how did St. Peter curse the lady and the lady turned into a woodpecker due to her greed, miser and selfishness. Nodoubt and without any hesitation we find that the poet tried to pour a moral lesson in our life. The poet says that we must have positive and helping attitude.

Q. What is a legend? Why is this poem called a legend?

Ans:- Nodoubt a legend is an old traditional story. We inherited from the past and handed over generations to generations. We can say that our ancestors imposed such type of story on our shoulders. The present poem is absolutely a legend and it tells us about popular traditional story of Northland.