

Transport

[D] Answer the following questions.

1. What are the different means of transport?

Ans:- The different means of transport can be grouped into three types as land transport, air transport and water transport.

2. How does a sailboat move?

Ans:- A sailboat uses wind to move.

3. Why are the means of transport important in our life?

Ans:- The means of transport are important in our life because:

- (i) They take us to our place of work.
- (ii) They help us to reach school.
- (iii) They help us to visit our friends and relatives.
- (iv) They help us to carry things from one place to another.

4. What do we mean by passenger train and goods train?

Ans:- Trains which carry people are called passenger trains. Trains which carry goods are called goods train.

5. Describe any two means of water transport.

Ans:- Two means of water transport are given below.

- (i) sailboat :- A sailboat uses wind to move. It is used to travel short distances over rivers and lakes.
- (ii) speedboat :- A speedboat is a small boat. It travels very fast.