

<Q13> In which list did you put cow and the buffalo?

Ans:- Animals whose ears can be seen and has hair on their body.

<Q14> From a distance, can you see the hair on their skin?

Ans:- No, their hairs cannot be seen from a distance.

<Q15> Try to go near one of them. Could you see the hair?

Ans:- I can see their hair if I go near them.

CH: 2 - EAR TO EAR

Pg-No-16

* Which of the animals in the list give birth to babies? Also write the name of the animals who lay eggs. (Pg-No-15)

Animals who give birth to the babies	Animals who lay eggs
Deer, Cat, Buffalo, Giraffe, Camel, Cow, Fox, Elephant, Mouse, Pig, I	Frog, Lizard, Duck, Crow, Sparrow, Fish, Ant, Snake,

NOTE: - (i) Those animals whose ears you can see have hair on their body. These animals give birth to the young ones.

(ii) Those animals that do not have ears on the outside, do not have hair on their body. These animals lay eggs.

————— X —————

Pg-No-15

CH-2-EAR TO EAR

NCERT Pg. No-17

(1) Have you seen animals around your home or school that have small babies? Write their names in your notebook.

Ans:- I have seen animals and their babies around me like dog, cat, pig, rat, cow, horse etc.

(2) Have you ever kept a pet? Does anyone you know keep a pet?

Ans:- I had once kept a pet dog and a pet parrot.

(3) Find out more about the pet.

(i) Which animal is it?

Ans:- It was a dog and a parrot.

(ii) Does it have names? What is it?

Ans:- Yes, they have names. We called them Tommy and Mithu.

(iii) Who gave it this name?

Ans:- We gave them these names.

(iv) What does it like to eat?

Ans:- The dog liked to eat meat, bread etc. and the parrot liked chilli, guava, gram.