

Exercise-3

Below are some sentences without punctuation marks. Classify the sentences as Imperative (Im), Exclamatory (E) or Declarative (D). Put the correct punctuation mark at the end of each sentence.

- | | |
|---|----------------------|
| a. How well she dances! | Exclamatory |
| b. How many TV channels do you have? | Interrogative |
| c. Play the movie again. | Imperative |
| d. The cow is a useful animal. | Declarative |
| e. How wonderful the weather is! | Exclamatory |
| f. Pass the salt, please. | Imperative |
| g. What a lovely flower! | Exclamatory |
| h. Have you paid the phone bill? | Interrogative |
| i. The dog chased the boy. | Declarative |
| j. Why is she laughing? | Interrogative |
| k. What a good idea! | Exclamatory |
| l. Are you ready to leave? | Interrogative |
| m. Look at those birds. | Imperative. |
| n. Where have you put the remote control? | Interrogative |

Exercise-3

- o. Turn the TV down.
- p. Please give me the remote.

Imperative

Imperative