

Revision Test 1

34. Change the singular nouns to their plural forms in the following sentences. Note when there are no changes to be made.

a. The cat killed a mouse.

→ The cats killed the mice

b. He has enemies disguised as friends.

— No changes to be made.

c. Mr Mehra is moving the furniture of his house.

— Mr Mehra is moving the furnitures of his houses

d. The ox is tied with a rope.

— The oxen are tied with a rope.

e. The mouse ate all the grain.

— The mice ate all the grain.

f. The geese are flying in the sky.

— No changes to be made.

Q 5. Underline the adjectives in the following sentences, and say what kind of adjective each one is, and what noun it belongs to.

a. The poor old woman gets little food.

Adjective of quality - poor, old

Adjective of quantity - little

Proper noun - —

Common noun - food, woman

b. CV Raman was a great scientist.

Adjective of quantity - great

Adjective of quantity -

Proper noun - CV Raman

Common noun - Scientist

c. I want some money.

Adjective of quantity - some Common noun - money

d. Two boys came running from the house

Adjective of quantity/number - Two

Common noun - boys, house

e. That poor man has few friends.

Adjective of quality - poor

Adjective of quantity - few

Common noun - man, friends

f. He wastes less time and takes more trouble.

Adjective of quantity - less, more

Common time - time, trouble

g. Whose book is this?

Demonstrative adjective - this

Interrogative adjective - whose

Common noun - book

h. The movie 'Titanic' was a big hit.

Adjective of quantity - big

Proper noun - Titanic

Common noun - movie, hit