Q.1. Discuss answer them.

(i) When is a grown-up likely to say this?
"Don't talk with your mouth full."

Ans. When a child talks while eating some-thing, a grown-up is likely to say this.

(ii) When are you likely to be told this?
"Say thank you."

Ans. When somebody helps us or gives us a gift, we are supposed to say 'thank you'.

(iii) When do you think an adult would say this?

"No one thinks you are funny."

Ans. When children act weird or do something funny to gain attention, then adults would say this.

Q2. The last two why? (2)

Ans In the last two lines the adults ask the child to think himself and to become independent in taking decisions. They are not reasonable in this because they don't allow the children to take decisions themselves. Always they suggest them that what they have to do or what not.

Q3. Why do in public?

Ans The grown-ups say such things to teach manners to their children. It is important for the children so that they can learn how to behave with other people of the society. They want their children to be a responsible citizen.
