

English
17/05/20

Class - VIII D

It so happened

Chapter - 3

The selfish Giant questions Answer

Q1 i) The giant saw a most wonderful sight. What did he see?

Ans 'The giant saw a most wonderful sight'. The sight was that there was a little child in the farthest corner of the garden. He was too tiny so he could not climb on the tree and was crying bitterly.

Q1 ii) What did he realise on seeing it?

Ans He realised that he had been too selfish that he had build wall around the garden. And not allowing the children to play in his garden. Then he made up his mind to knock down the walls of his garden.

Q2 Why was it still winter in one corner of his garden?

Ans It was still winter in one corner of his garden because the little boy could not climb up the tree he was very small and he was crying bitterly.

Q3 Describe the meeting of the little boy and the giant?

Ans The first meeting of the little boy and the giant was in the farthest corner of the garden. The child was crying, so he could not see the giant. The giant took the boy in his palm gently. The boy stretched out his arms and kissed him. Then the giant put the boy into the tree.

Q4 Describe their second meeting after a long interval?

Ans Their second meeting was also in the farthest corner of the garden. When the giant woke up one day he saw a beautiful sight. There was the little boy underneath the tree. The tree was having golden branches and silver fruits hung on it. The giant went quickly to meet the boy. The boy was having signs of nails on his palm and feet. The giant became angry and said he would kill, who had done it. Then the child told him, I have come to take you to my garden as you have let me play in your garden once.

Q5 The giant lay dead, all covered with white blossoms. What does this sentence indicate about the once selfish giant?

Ans As the giant was selfish, he did not allowed the children to play in his garden but later on he kind and gentle for the children and allowed to play them in his garden. So as he was a bachelor no one was there to look after him. Therefore when he died nature had taken care of him and covered him with white blossoms. As though he was covered with white cloth,